

AEP Networks ProServ

Each business is unique, an AEP Professional Services Consultant can design, tailor and implement a solution that fits in with your IT infrastructure, providing customers with guidance on the complexities of implementation solutions and helping you gain the greatest benefits from your network infrastructure and systems, supporting your business goals and helping you move your business forward.

Our consultants are experts in multi-vendor environments, including cryptographic network implementation, virtualisation, cloud computing and network optimisation, from planning to implementation, AEP Networks Professional Services can create an elegant solution for you.

Training

AEP offers classroom training and support in the operation and management of AEP products and solutions via training facilities in our various training centres.

Experienced AEP training consultants deliver both on-site and in-house customer training. All of our experienced trainers have strong technical background deliver training across all of our product range and always provide firsthand knowledge of our product capabilities that are relevant to your business objectives. Prior to training our consultants will work with you to tailor the training package, fine tuning as necessary to ensure maximum impact and value to your users. Design Consultancy

Our consultant skill sets encompass a range of competencies that include Network and Security Engineering, Network Design Architecture and Project Management, if you need assistance developing or maintaining business critical applications, let AEP earn your business, we focus on:

- ▶ Partnering with our partners to deliver results based on established objectives

- ▶ Where other communication suppliers may insist on replacing existing infrastructure, we will use these where possible
- ▶ Consultants that meet our core principles of mutuality, respect, challenge, responsibility and value satisfaction
- ▶ Drive down costs and contribute to increased revenue

Pre-Sales

As business becomes more competitive and network security more complex, network design and implementation grows increasingly more challenging. Even after implementing a new solution, on going needs persist requiring network configuration help and other types of pre-sales support.

To quickly and efficiently respond to a variety of sales assistance and support needs, AEP Pre-Sales staff will guide you through your current network infrastructure and identify risks and opportunities and recommend solutions to your individual requirements. When you need to redesign your network infrastructure AEP can offer the the experience you need to move your business forward.

AEP Professional Services (PFS) provides customers with resources that are dedicated to helping them deliver AEP Networks secure voice and data trusted security everywhere solutions. AEP boasts an excellent track record and expert staff skilled in the AEP Networks technology.

Contact Us

United States
Toll-Free: +1-877-638-4552
Tel: +1-732-652-5200

Europe:
Tel: +44 1344 637 300

Greater China:
Tel: +8621 5116 7120

SE Asia, Singapore:
Tel: +852 2961 4566

Japan:
Tel: +81 3 5979 2149

Australia/New Zealand:
Tel: +61 2 9413 2282

Malaysia:
Tel: +60 32166 2280

Email: sales@aepnetworks.com
Web: www.aepnetworks.com